HELP WITH ADOPTION

Catholic Charities USA states: "Our belief in the sanctity of human life compels us to support women facing an unintended pregnancy in the difficult process of deciding to parent their child or place their child in an adoptive family. This same belief compels us to find loving homes for children already born who are in need of the healing love of an adoptive family."

For information about adoption through Catholic Charities, visit catholiccharitiesusa.org/efforts/assisting-with-adoption.

Altar Care Help Needed

We are looking for volunteers to help with caring for the Altar at St. Ann's. Currently we are looking for folks to assist our group in cleaning the linens for one month of the year. This only entails FOUR days of the month you are assigned. We have been very fortunate for the committee we have had and for the many years for their commitment. But we truly need new faces to lend a helping hand. If you are interested you may contact us through this email address. Please consider a small portion of your time to assist us. Thank you in advance.

Mike and Mary Jo Gehm
stargem57@twcny.rr.com

We have learned of a tremendous need for support on the Northside because several food pantries have closed in the city of Syracuse. With that, the St. Charles Food Pantry has committed to assistance to the Assumption Food Pantry on the third Tuesday of each month.

We will begin listing the specific needs of the people of Assumption in the bulletin next week. As always, thank you for your continuous support and generosity to those so in need.

Sincerely,

Marie Cullen

St. Charles Food Pantry

We are in desperate need of peanut butter, cereal of all kinds and tunafish. Our non-food items are soap (of all kinds) shampoo and toothpaste.
