Respect Life

Let us remember the innocent victims of the Abortion War who did not even receive a name to begin with. Yet, so great in number are they that if each were individually named and placed on a wall similar to the Vietnam Wall, that wall would be 58 miles long!

Ministry to the Homebound

We are always looking for parishioners that are unable to come to Mass to receive the Eucharist. If you, or someone you love is need of this ministry, please call the Parish Office. HIPA Laws make it difficult to be aware of those in this circumstance.

Also, if you would like to be part of the Homebound Ministry and are unable to physically visit a parishioner, we also have phone callers that will make a call and chat. If you are interested in this Ministry, please let us know.

St. Charles Food Pantry—

We are in desperate need of children's books, shampoo, sauce, tunafish, mayonnaise, peanut butter, jelly and crackers.

I will sing of your steadfast Love, O Lord, forever!

God of joy and hope, we thank you for this time of graduation.

Your spirit of wisdom has empowered our hard work and discipline in such a way that our hunger for learning has been nourished with knowledge, discovery, creativity, and determination.

As we prepare to walk across the stage to receive our diplomas, let us walk in prayerful gratitude for the many blessings that have made this moment real and filled with great potential.

In gratitude, we pray for our families and the many who have sacrificed and worked to see us to this hopeful moment.

In gratitude, we pray for the professors and administrators who have challenged, cared, and crafted us along this academic journey.

In gratitude, we pray for fellow students who have taught us more about friendship, collaboration, and sharing.

God, even as we have faced challenges and accomplished much, we understand that our lives move into a new chapter where there will be more challenges to face and more will be demanded of us in order to accomplish good things. May your grace cover our anxieties and fears so that we may stay encouraged about the future.

Give us patience and hope to energize our search for work that is just and makes proper use of our gifts.

Give us courage to face the challenges of carving out a place in society where we might live in peace, service, and gratitude.

Give us strength to resist the temptations of greed, laziness, pride, and envy as we strive to do and be our best.

May your spirit guide us as we unfold the next chapters of our lives. Help us to enliven hope in the world and bring good things to Your Kingdom. And, may this celebration be a reflection of the blessings that we find in knowing and loving you. For this is the day that the Lord has made. We are glad and rejoice in it! Amen.

ST. ANN'S FOOD PANTRY

Many families in our area must decide between food and diapers. Most pantries do not have diapers on a regular basis. A new group called "the CNY Diaper Bank" is forming to fill this need. If you would like to contribute you can leave the diapers (any size) in the gathering room and we will see that they are delivered to the proper place. Thank you!
