Volunteers Needed at St. Camillus

We need volunteers at St. Camillus to help with Rosary on Mondays from about 10:30 to 11:30, and some Eucharistic ministers to serve on some of the units. Anyone interested could come and help a couple of times to see if they are interested in becoming a volunteer. For Rosary on Mondays we need transport help. People might also help leading the Rosary. An extra Eucharistic minister would also help at Rosary. Call me for questions/details at 315-468-2283 (aparatorel@verizon.net), or call Candace Lawrence, the Pastoral Care Director at St. Camillus directly at 315-488-2951.

Respect Life

In these difficult years since September 11, 2001 we have been reminded that we need one another. The task of eliminating terrorism once and for all is a task not only for our military forces, but also for every one of us. The more we build families and communities of concrete love, the more we crowd out terrorism. One of the fascinating phenomena that took place in NYC is how strangers were spontaneously talking to each other, expressing concern for one another. This tragedy reminds us that there really are no strangers, and though it is hard to realize at times, victory is ours. This we know from our Faith. The power of death has already been conquered in Jesus Christ. Evil will not have the final work. We will not live in fear. God will bless America, and the world, which still belongs to Him.

FORMATION FOR MINISTRY PROGRAM

As the demands of parish ministry increase, we have the opportunity to look for new models to serve the faithful in our parishes. With the sponsorship of their pastor, the Formation for Ministry program provides the foundation for individuals to prepare to be commissioned as lay ministers. Classes are offered in the regions of the diocese; retreats and workshops are held in Syracuse.

Specialized ministries include: Pastoral Service, Faith Formation, Liturgy/RCIA, Youth Ministry and Parish Business Administration.

If you are interested in this program, please contact either Father Brian or Deacon Tony.

*Bible Study will resume September 17th

God reveals himself to us through the Bible. We come to know Him and ourselves better when we study the Word. Sr. Brigid O'Mahony and Fr. Brian break open the meaning of Scripture and how we can apply it to our lives. No experience is necessary - we encourage everyone to join us. Bring a Bible - bring a friend! The next meeting will be September 17th Where: Media Room Please consider bringing a friend and joining us! For more information: Sister Eileen McGrath 315-706-1744

In a recent issue of America Magazine, Father Matt Malone, S. J. speaks of his own hearing disability when stricken with a sudden sensorineural hearing loss,— origin unknown. He speaks of his journey and how it has taken him seven years to adjust—Father admits he is still learning. "I know that many people have far more challenging disabilities than mine. For example, that while people are often sympathetic toward those who are visually impaired, they can be quite impatient and even rude with people who are hearing impaired. People resent having to repeat something because I didn't hear it, or they get frustrated because I didn't hear the punchline of their joke and now their timing is ruined. Sometimes they just say "forget about it."

"Forget about it" is just about the most offensive thing you can say to someone with hearing loss. If it was important enough to say in the first place, then say it again.

For the most part, however people are understanding and compassionate. The experience reminds me that I have many people in my life who love me and care about me. Now in some way I am more in touch with the world's pain, with the countless challenges seen and unseen, that so many people encounter every day."

When we listen to the stories of people living with disabilities, we all benefit. Those who are disabled, so often excluded and ignored, are the source of God's grace. They are our closest encounter with Jesus.
