RCIA

"I would like to tell all those who feel far from God and the church—and I say this respectfully to those who are afraid or indifferent: The Lord calls you and wants you to be part of his people and does so with great respect and love! The Lord … gives love and this love looks for you, waits for you—for you who don't believe or have drifted away. This is the love of God."
— Pope Francis, St. Peter's Square, Epiphany, January 6, 2014

Please take an active role in leading someone you know to the love of God. We will be holding a series of "Come and see if it's for me" sessions for individuals who are:

*interested in becoming Catholic *wishing to receive any sacraments they've missed *who are thinking about coming back to the fullness of the Catholic Faith

These will be informal sessions to answer questions and start a conversation. Sessions will be held weekly on Sunday mornings starting October 30th through Nov.20th. Please join us at 9:00 in the Ministry Center (former St. Ann's Convent — brick building on opposite side of former school from the church). Please enter by the second door — the one opposite the far side of the school building. Feel free to bring a friend along!

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Respect Life One Canadian disability activist, Mark Pickup, recently penned a powerful reflection on his country's embrace of euthanasia.

"It is actually regression to a Dark Age where life is expendable. I am one of the expendable. God help me if I despair. Suicide prevention will be withheld from me. Assisted suicide will be offered instead. I meet all the criteria to be euthanized if there's nobody to defend me at the point when I cannot defend myself.
