Respect Life

When I meet another parent of a child with disability, there is usually a moment of instant recognition and understanding... The secret we share is the fundamental truth of our existence: every life is a good and perfect gift. Our love for them has nothing to do with what they can or can't do. We love them simply because of who they are."

"Where two or more are gathered in my name..."

This year St. Charles-St. Ann's Faith Formation classes for teens ends in a prayer service every class.

The last fifteen minutes of the night session all the classes meet in the church to pray together. Each class gets the opportunity to pick what communal prayer is to be prayed. The 100 or so teens have prayed the rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, they have meditated through Adoration and have experienced guided meditation. The class writes intentions for the evening and volunteers from each class lead the church in prayer. Since this is new for all of us the Peer Ministers (juniors and seniors) have led the first prayer services so as to give example on how to plan the night prayer.

One of the teens commented: "I love how peaceful the night prayer makes me feel—the sound of the prayers prayed together is just so calming."

The best part of the evening is that the parents and families are invited to join us. And the blessing is that they ARE joining us. The parents have commented on just how much they enjoy and look forward to the 15 minutes of peace and prayer. There is a power in prayer that is beyond anything we can teach, the grace and blessings given will join all of us in union with Christ as family.

Terri Condon
