Dance, Cuisine, Painting,
Language, Music and Gardening

The art of the Sisters of St. Francis of the Neumann Communities will be shared through exhibits, displays and workshops. Please join us in celebrating the creativity and beauty the sisters have offered to their patients and communities from Marianne's day through today.

Our festival falls on the same day St. Joseph's Hospital opened for patients in 1869. It is sure to be a memorable day! Come for a short while, or stay the whole afternoon. View the displays in our museum galleries, meet sisters, and participate in one or more of the workshops. Leave inspired.

VISIT SAINTMARIANNE.ORG FOR THE WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

RESPECT LIFE

"Leave it up to the woman to decide" sounds to many like a fair compromise in the abortion debate. But this position completely destroys equality before the law, because it constitutes a complete removal of protection from the child. The lives of unborn children who are wanted and carried to term do not have any more protection from the law than the lives of unborn children who are unwanted and carried to the abortionist. The lives of the wanted are protected only by their "wantedness," which, of course, can be subject to change at any time. As far as the law is concerned, they are all non-persons, regardless of circumstance.

A compromise "usually and by definition, allows some accommodation to both sides in the abortion dispute. But current abortion policy allows no accommodation to the claims that innocent human life make upon us." (Priests for Life)
