WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Let us pray...

God of the invitation,

you knock upon the door of everyone's heart.

We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes.

We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance.

We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead.

Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.

Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

"How long has Jesus been knocking at the door of your heart, waiting to enter?"

-St. John Baptist de la Salle

Respect Life

"Pro-life pregnancy care centers embody everything that is right and good in our nation: generosity, compassion and love that is offered to support both mother and a child. But rather than applauding and encouraging the selfless and life-affirming work of these centers, some governments want to force them to provide free advertising for the violent act of abortion in direct violation of their pro-life convictions and the First Amendment. The United States Supreme Court cannot let this happen. We pray that the Court will do the right thing and uphold our fundamental right to free speech when it decides this case."

Cardinal Timothy Dolan of NY

They say it takes a village to raise a child. If that is true, then it takes a whole army to raise a faith-filled child! On Thursday, April 12th, we were witness to the call on the Holy Spirit by Bishop Cunningham to confirm 28 young men and women in the Faith at St. Charles Church. The Church was packed and music filled the air with songs of Spirit and Grace. A huge amount of thanksgiving and praise goes to the parents of these young disciples. They are the primary educators of the faith to the young and they should be praised for their commitment to bringing up their children in the faith of Christ and His Church. These parents have supported and encouraged their sons and daughters to take an active role in the Church. This year we celebrate the "Year of the Family" and many of our parents have attended the many Family Evening of Catechesis and have joined us for closing prayer on Sunday evenings. We thank you so much for taking this active role! Our newly confirmed young men and women by far are ready and are called to own their faith and to be witnesses of Christ in their world. They have prepared, they have served others and they have formed community and now, it is the beginning of a new journey of faith.

Thank you to our teens for their dedication and their friendship over this Preparation for the Sacrament. We would like to thank the dedicated teachers: Liz Demperio, Bob Mayott, Neil Rader and Nina Scrimale for sharing their time, faith and witness to our young people. We thank the Peer Ministers, our Juniors and Seniors in high school, who helped in the classes and ran our retreats. We thank our amazing combined choir who added to our Liturgy with songs to lift our prayers and our spirits. Thank you to our altar servers, reception hosts and greeters who added to our Liturgy. A very special thanks to our Pastor, Fr. Kevin and to De. Tony for helping with interviews and for all their spiritual leadership. We were honored to have Bishop Cunningham and Fr. Joe O'Connor celebrate our Confirmation Liturgy and we thank them for their many years of witness to the Church of Syracuse. We look forward to watching our teens journey on at St. Charles-St. Ann's in various ministries and help to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

In our politically charged society, I imagine many have heard the quote, "It takes a village..." Whether or not one likes the politics of the author of that quote, in the words are truth. It takes many people to create and sustain a community.

For those of us who are Catholic, we believe in the power of vocations to help spread the Gospel message. And vocations are an important part of the community. The vocations to priesthood, or the diaconate, or religious life are at the center of our efforts to spread the good news. However, we need to also speak about the vocation of married life as service to the church; and furthermore, the vocation of single life. It is at our baptism that we are given the mandate to spread the Gospel through our vocation in the church.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me" (Rv 3:20).

We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete.

Reminder!!

If you have requested a Mass intention for a family member or loved one and you would like to bring up the gifts at the offertory, please let an usher know you are there before Mass begins.
