Kateri Tekakwitha

The daughter of an Algonquin mother and a Mohawk chief was born in 1656. When she was four years old her parents and brother died of smallpox. Kateri survived, but the disease left her scarred and her sight impaired. She was named "Tekakwitha," which means "she who bumps into things." Kateri's uncle took her in, and although she wanted to practice the religion of her mother, her uncle discouraged her. At the age of eighteen, Kateri began studying the Catholic religion in secret. After a time, her uncle gave his permission for her to become a Christian as long as she did not leave the village. There, she put up with ridicule because of her faith. In 1676, Kateri fled to Canada where she made her first Communion on Christmas, 1677. Although the last years of her life were difficult Kateri was known for her kindness and good humor. She died on April 17, 1680 and was canonized by Pope Benedict in 2012.

God reveals himself to us through the Bible. We come to know Him and ourselves better when we study the Word. Sr. Brigid O'Mahoney breaks open the meaning of Scripture and how we can apply it to our lives. The next meeting will be on July 14th and 21st from 9-11am in the Media Room.

Bring a Bible and a friend. We'd love to have you join us!

Ladies * Ladies * Ladies

Respect LIFE

Those who desire and promote euthanasia choose to believe they are the masters of their existence. They believe they are bringing mercy by bringing death. But the God of Jesus Christ—who is mercy and love itself—did not deign to remove suffering even for his Son. Rather, God used that suffering to bring about the greatest of goods— and give us a living example after which to pattern our lives. God's ways are better than any of our imaginings.

Pope St. John Paul II cuts to the heart of the theological understanding of suffering in his encyclical when he says, "the Redeemer suffered in place of man and for man. Every man has his own share in the redemption. Each one is also called to share in that suffering through which the Redemption was accomplished."
