REFLECT

FIRST READING

In Moses' appeal to the Lord to remain with the Israelites despite their sinfulness, God reveals his fidelity and mercy. Where do you see these aspects of God in your life journey?

SECOND READING

We hear today one of the earliest New Testament references to the Holy Trinity in Paul's closing remarks to the Christians in Corinth. For Paul, the Trinity embodies grace, love, and fellowship. What insight does this offer us about our Triune God?

GOSPEL READING

This well-known text from the Gospel of John reveals to us God's self-sacrifice for our salvation. Why do you think so many people reject or simply ignore this offer of eternal life from God?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

A well-choreographed dance can be truly inspirational. Each movement and step are interconnected, each contributing a piece of the unfolding artistic story. The beholder is caught up in the rhythms, music, and gestures, realizing that none are dispensable and all are necessary. The same is true of the Divine Dance of the Trinity. Each Person plays a part, using unique gestures and movements that are connected to the other Divine Partners. They tell a story of love. Every movement and step is born of love and flows on into eternity. The Divine Dance never ends.

God the Creator powerfully, yet with gentle love, leads. Creating and recreating, birthing and sustaining, He dances with the compassionate incarnate Son, guided by the breath of the Holy Spirit. They are three distinct Persons but move as One. On one hand, the cascading flow of their Presence appears motionless, yet on the other, flows and moves with effortless attention. They share one heart, one goal, and one purpose and invite all of creation to join in their dance, their joy.

The energy of the Trinity flows through all created things. It is a dance of the heart, not of the mind. It has to be experienced, not dissected, and contemplated, not understood. We stand in awe of the Divine Dance and find ourselves watching in amazement all that God creates and sustains. The dance continues in the majesty of a mountain, the power and wonder of an ocean, and the vastness of the universe. It moves in the cry of a newborn infant and in the soul of one who has been forgiven. It flows in the cry for justice and in the wounds of the oppressed. It circles through the changing of seasons, the cycles of birth and death, and the wisdom that one acquires when they love God.

The Dance never ends. Its movements and rhythms go on forever. The Trinitarian Dance sustains all things, endures all things, and brings hope. You are invited to dance. Don't just watch as if you were simply a spectator. Join in the dance and move as they move.

*“Without love, deeds,
even the most brilliant,
count as nothing.”*

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Local businesses and sponsors that advertise on bulletins need you now more than ever before. Please encourage and remind others to show their support during this time.

A sincere "Thanks" to all who have very generously donated to the Milk Mission, which started it's 7th year on April 1st. The parishioners and friends of St. Charles-St. Ann's have been donating funds to buy milk for Assumption Food Pantry and St. Lucy's Food Pantry, a total of 70 gallons per week. Recently we heard from St. Lucy's Pantry, that for a short time, they would be receiving milk from the Dairy Cooperative. Murray Gould, the Director of St. Lucy's, asked if we could please donate bricks of cheese instead. Moving forward, for the month of June, we will be donating 24 bricks of sharp cheddar cheese to St. Lucy's in place of 25 gallons of milk. Wegman's has been so helpful in preparing the purchases and helping to load the vehicles for pick-up. It has been such a blessing to the pantries over the years and we pray to continue to provide to those in need. St. Charles-St. Ann's is a very generous parish, which is obvious from all that our Pantry has done over the many years under the guidance of Marie Cullen. May we continue to reach out to our brothers and sisters who need our help - it is one of our greatest missions as Church.

St. Patrick and St. Brigid

Thank you for your continued generosity!

May their souls and all the souls of the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
