GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, "I'm tired of struggling with this cold, I can't wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better." Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises?

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace, and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.

And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me."

Thank you for your continued generosity!

A Summer Blessing

Go now and know that the Spirit of Jesus will be watching over you.

Go now and enjoy God's summer gifts of warm sun, cool waters, and long, light days.

Go now with the gift of faith, that you might see God's hand in all our work and play.

Go now with the gift of hope, that you may know God's guidance,
which is keeping you safe.

Go now with the gift of love, that you might offer kindness and care to all you meet.

Go now with the gift of knowledge, remembering all that you have learned. With God's help try to live it.

Go now with these words of Jesus in your hearts and minds:

"I will not leave you; I am with you always."

May their souls and all the souls of the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Respect Life

In what we pray is the final chapter to the horrific saga of the late abortionist Dr. Ulrich "George" Klopfer, the remains of 2,411 aborted babies were laid to rest February 12 at Southlawn Cemetery in South Bend, Indiana. The babies, aborted in clinics in South Bend, Fort Wayne and Gary by Dr. Klopfer between 2000 and 2003, were found medically preserved at the abortion doctor's Illinois home and in the trunk of a car. At the funeral, Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill said, "The shocking discovery...was horrifying to anyone with normal sensibilities. Regrettably, there is no shortage of depravity in our world today, including due regard for the most vulnerable among us." Giving the babies a proper burial showcased the dignity that should be afforded to all human life- especially to those so mercilessly snuffed out.
